JOKES

Wife: "Our new neighbor always kisses his wife when he leaves for work. Why don't you do that?"

Husband: "How can I? I don't even know her."

Q: Is Google male or female?

A: Female, because it doesn't let you finish a sentence before making a suggestion.

Vale John Manson

Members were saddened in February to learn of the passing of John Manson. In addition to his great love for his late wife Erin, and for his family, John had three passions – his stamp collection, his tennis and his cage birds.

John was a founding member of the Ipswich Stamp Club, honoured as a life member, and a conscientious and hard-working secretary for many years.

Despite poor health and failing eyesight, John retained his interest in our hobby to the end, attending club meetings whenever he could, and enjoying frequent visits to stamp days in our region. John's funeral was at Glebe Road Uniting Church on 9th February, where a large crowd of mourners, including those from our stamp club, and many from Ipswich tennis clubs, met to honour his memory.

John was made a Life Member of Ipswich Stamp Club in 2012. Our thoughts and deepest sympathy goes out to his family.

Mother: "How was school today, Patrick?"

Patrick: "It was really great mum! Today we made explosives!"

Mother: "Ooh, they do very fancy stuff with you these days. And what will you do at school tomorrow?"

Patrick: "What school?"

I had my credit card stolen the other day but I didn't bother to report it because the thief spends less than my wife.

A woman noticed her husband standing on the bathroom scale, sucking in his stomach. "Ha! That's not going to help," she said. "Sure, it does," he said. "It's the only way I can see the numbers."
